

ATLANTA CROSSWORD

Across

4. This turn-of-the-century, three-story, Tudor Revival building was the home of the author of Gone With the Wind.
5. Martin Luther King Jr. was baptized and ordained as a minister at this Baptist church.
8. Take a walk on the wild side here to see komodo dragons, red pandas, otters and more.
9. This Presidential Library and Museum has an exact replica of the Oval Office and holds memorabilia from the 1976-1981 presidency.
11. Visit the tasting room to sample over 60 beverages from around the world.
13. The _____ historic district reflects the history, heritage and achievements of Atlanta's African-Americans.
14. This park is the premier green space and central gathering place of Atlanta with postcard views of the Midtown Atlanta skyline.
16. This Center for Non-Violent Change the largest repository of primary source materials on this activist and the American Civil Rights Movement in the world.
17. Here you can see whale sharks, the largest fish in the world.
18. Visit Turner Field to see this major league baseball team play.

Down

1. Visit this observation deck atop the Westin Peachtree Plaza for breathtaking 360 degree views of the city.
2. This multi-block gathering spot was built for the 1996 Olympic Games.
3. This natural history museum not only has fossils from the largest dinosaurs ever discovered, but the largest movie screen in Atlanta too!
6. Learn that money doesn't grow on trees at the Federal Reserve Bank _____.
7. The interactive exhibits at the Atlanta _____ highlight major themes in Georgia studies and U.S. history.
10. This park water feature is in the shape of an iconic symbol of the Olympic Games.
12. Tour the global headquarters of this news network.
13. The Plantation at _____ is the perfect place to learn about Colonial Georgia, Antebellum Life or the Civil War in Georgia.
15. Sit at the center of this sweeping panorama of the Battle of Atlanta, fought on July 22, 1864, during the American Civil War.

ATLANTA CROSSWORD

Across

- This turn-of-the-century, three-story, Tudor Revival building was the home of the author of Gone With the Wind.
- Martin Luther King Jr. was baptized and ordained as a minister at this Baptist church.
- Take a walk on the wild side here to see komodo dragons, red pandas, otters and more.
- This Presidential Library and Museum has an exact replica of the Oval Office and holds memorabilia from the 1976-1981 presidency.
- Visit the tasting room to sample over 60 beverages from around the world.
- The _____ historic district reflects the history, heritage and achievements of Atlanta's African-Americans.
- This park is the premier green space and central gathering place of Atlanta with postcard views of the Midtown Atlanta skyline.
- This Center for Non-Violent Change the largest repository of primary source materials on this activist and the American Civil Rights Movement in the world.
- Here you can see whale sharks, the largest fish in the world.
- Visit Turner Field to see this major league baseball team play.

Down

- Visit this observation deck atop the Westin Peachtree Plaza for breathtaking 360 degree views of the city.
- This multi-block gathering spot was built for the 1996 Olympic Games.
- This natural history museum not only has fossils from the largest dinosaurs ever discovered, but the largest movie screen in Atlanta too!
- Learn that money doesn't grow on trees at the Federal Reserve Bank _____.
- The interactive exhibits at the Atlanta _____ highlight major themes in Georgia studies and U.S. history.
- This park water feature is in the shape of an iconic symbol of the Olympic Games.
- Tour the global headquarters of this news network.
- The Plantation at _____ is the perfect place to learn about Colonial Georgia, Antebellum Life or the Civil War in Georgia.
- Sit at the center of this sweeping panorama of the Battle of Atlanta, fought on July 22, 1864, during the American Civil War.